

been nicknamed the 90-10 plan, a double win, a win-win for the taxpayers, a plan that sets aside $1.4 trillion for Social Security, twice what the President originally asked for, and sets it aside for a long-term plan to save Social Security.

This plan also works to eliminate the marriage tax penalty. I have often asked, is it right, is it fair that under our tax code, that a married working couple with two incomes pays higher taxes than an identical couple that lives together outside of marriage; that they pay higher taxes just because they are married?

We know that is wrong. We have answered that with this 90-10 plan that saves Social Security, and of course, the centerpiece is an effort which will eliminate the marriage tax penalty for a majority of those who suffer.

Our friends on the other side of the aisle, they talk about the Social Security trust fund. Judith Chesser, deputy commissioner of the Social Security Administration, when asked in the Committee on Ways and Means last week if this tax cut impacts the Social Security trust fund, her answer was simple: No.

Let us pass it. It deserves bipartisan support.

SAVE SOCIAL SECURITY

(Mr. GREEN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GREEN. Mr. Speaker, this Congress made a commitment to save and protect Social Security for the future. It is one of the most successful domestic programs that has ever been created, but now, according to my Republican colleagues, we have a surplus, which means that we can then provide a tax cut, while at the same time continue to hide the real deficit with Social Security funds.

To make matters worse, it is estimated that the proposed tax cut would benefit mostly those who earn over $100,000 a year. To spend this illusory surplus is wrong. We need to remove Social Security from the budget and pay down the national debt.

Let us be honest, we do not have a surplus if we do not include Social Security in the budget. What we have is borrowed money from the Social Security trust fund, and this money will have to be paid back—every penny of it. This surplus should go to the Social Security trust fund and not a tax cut, because there is no surplus.

TIME FOR REFORM FOR THE SAVANNAH DISTRICT OF THE U.S. ARMY CORPS OF ENGINEERS

(Mr. NORWOOD asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. NORWOOD. Mr. Speaker, here we go again, a different constituent, but the same old shenanigans, the Savannah District of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

Jim Davis buys a house on Lake Thurman, so he can enjoy the beauty and recreational opportunity that this part of Georgia has to offer. That sounds easy enough, does it not? Yet, when the Corps gets involved, it is never easy, it is a pain in the neck.

The Corps will not approve Dr. Davis's permit for lakeshore use until he replants trees within the underbrush area that was cut down some 25 years ago. It is not even his property, it is public property. That is fine, if Dr. Davis had been the one to cut down the trees, but he was not. He just bought the property. So the Corps, which obviously has nothing better to do than to harass my constituents, hassles a man who is simply trying to mind his own business and follow some commonsense rules.

Mr. Speaker, it is time for the Corps to reform its bully mentality and its ludicrous shoreline management plan. If they cannot manage people, they cannot manage property.

ILLEGAL TRADE PRACTICES BY THE CHINESE BALLOONS THEIR TRADE SURPLUS

(Mr. TRAFICANT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Speaker, China's trade surplus has ballooned to over $1 billion a week, and China is doing it illegally: prison labor, slave wages at 17 cents an hour, illegal dumping, trade barriers. When confronted, China thumbs their nose right in our faces.

□ 1015

In fact, they now say the real trade deficit in America is only pennies on the dollar with China. I ask today, who is teaching those communist accountants? The Internal Revenue Service?

Beam me up.

Mr. Speaker, I say this: Congress should stop coddling China. This is not about trade anymore. It is about national security. And a communist nation is ripping off Uncle Sam.

90-10 TAX RELIEF

(Mr. SAM JOHNSON of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. SAM JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. Speaker, right now, senior citizens are losing their Social Security benefits because they just want to work and earn a living. Right now, seniors can earn only up to $14,500 before they lose some of their benefits. This is an earnings limit that discriminates against senior citizens.

Is it not outrageous to penalize seniors for working? The Taxpayer Relief Act would raise the limits and give essential tax relief to working seniors. It also sets aside $1.4 trillion, which our colleagues fail to understand, to protect Social Security. That is 90 percent of the total surplus.

President Clinton does not want to help working citizens. He calls our plan "a gimmick to please people." I urge my colleagues, do not believe him. The President has proposed to spend billions from the surplus on bigger government. He is the one with the gimmicks.

We can protect Social Security and give tax relief. Let us just do it.

NORTH KOREA'S RECENT TAEPODONG I MISSILE LAUNCH

(Mr. UNDERWOOD asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. UNDERWOOD. Mr. Speaker, on August 31 of this year, the government of North Korea tested its first three-stage missile over Japan. The missile, a modified Taepodong I, which traveled approximately 1,500 kilometers, landed in the Pacific, northwest of Misawa U.S. Air Force base in Japan.

Mr. Speaker, despite horrific famine, devastating floods and economic quarantine, North Korea has demonstrated its ability to strike targets in Japan and beyond. Missile defense experts have cited that this test is a key milestone in North Korea's efforts to develop their long-range ballistic missile that could conceivably place Alaska, Guam, and possibly Hawaii within the cross hairs of North Korean aggression.

Today, the gentleman from Alaska (Mr. YOUNG) and I are introducing a resolution which condemns North Korea for this act of international recklessness. Mr. Speaker, let us be honest here. This resolution will not stop North Korean missiles from being developed or exported. It will not compel an apology from Kim Jong Il. But what it does do is announce to the regime in Pyongyang, in no uncertain terms, that we are watching and we are taking notice of their actions. I urge my colleagues to please support this resolution.

IN SUPPORT OF RELIGIOUS LIBERTY IN THE MALDIVES

(Mr. PITTS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PITTS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to speak on behalf of the persecuted Christians in the Republic of Maldives. Reports indicate that on June 18, 1998, police searched foreign workers' homes and confiscated passports, correspondence, books and other possessions.

Approximately 19 foreign Christians were forced to sign statements and were expelled for life from the Maldives. In addition, Christian Maldivian citizens have been arrested and put in prison. Authorities have denied these individuals visits from their
